Ron & I we've had share of fun balls every morning except for our summers with Ireland. Hope you and all those freshman girls have a not too looking tough you oughta take it easy next year. I hope you oughta take it easy Spring and Fall just in case I come back

Well me gotta go.
Love

Ron, (Best bone player) that next year we can get some kind of a group going with you on the guitar.
By then you ought to be real good on the guitar, that is summer, I'm sure you will.
Love

Dear Mr. [unclear]
 I have the pleasure to inform you that your application for a [unclear] has been received and is being considered. I will be in touch with you again in a few days.

Dear Ron,

All the little sayings are really worn out, so I'll just say it's really been fun, you're a real nice guy, my but this year's gone fast, and I wish you luckin all ~~the~~ you do.
Also be good and have fun this summer. Sound familiar?

Actually it's all true, but it sure gets old.

Love,

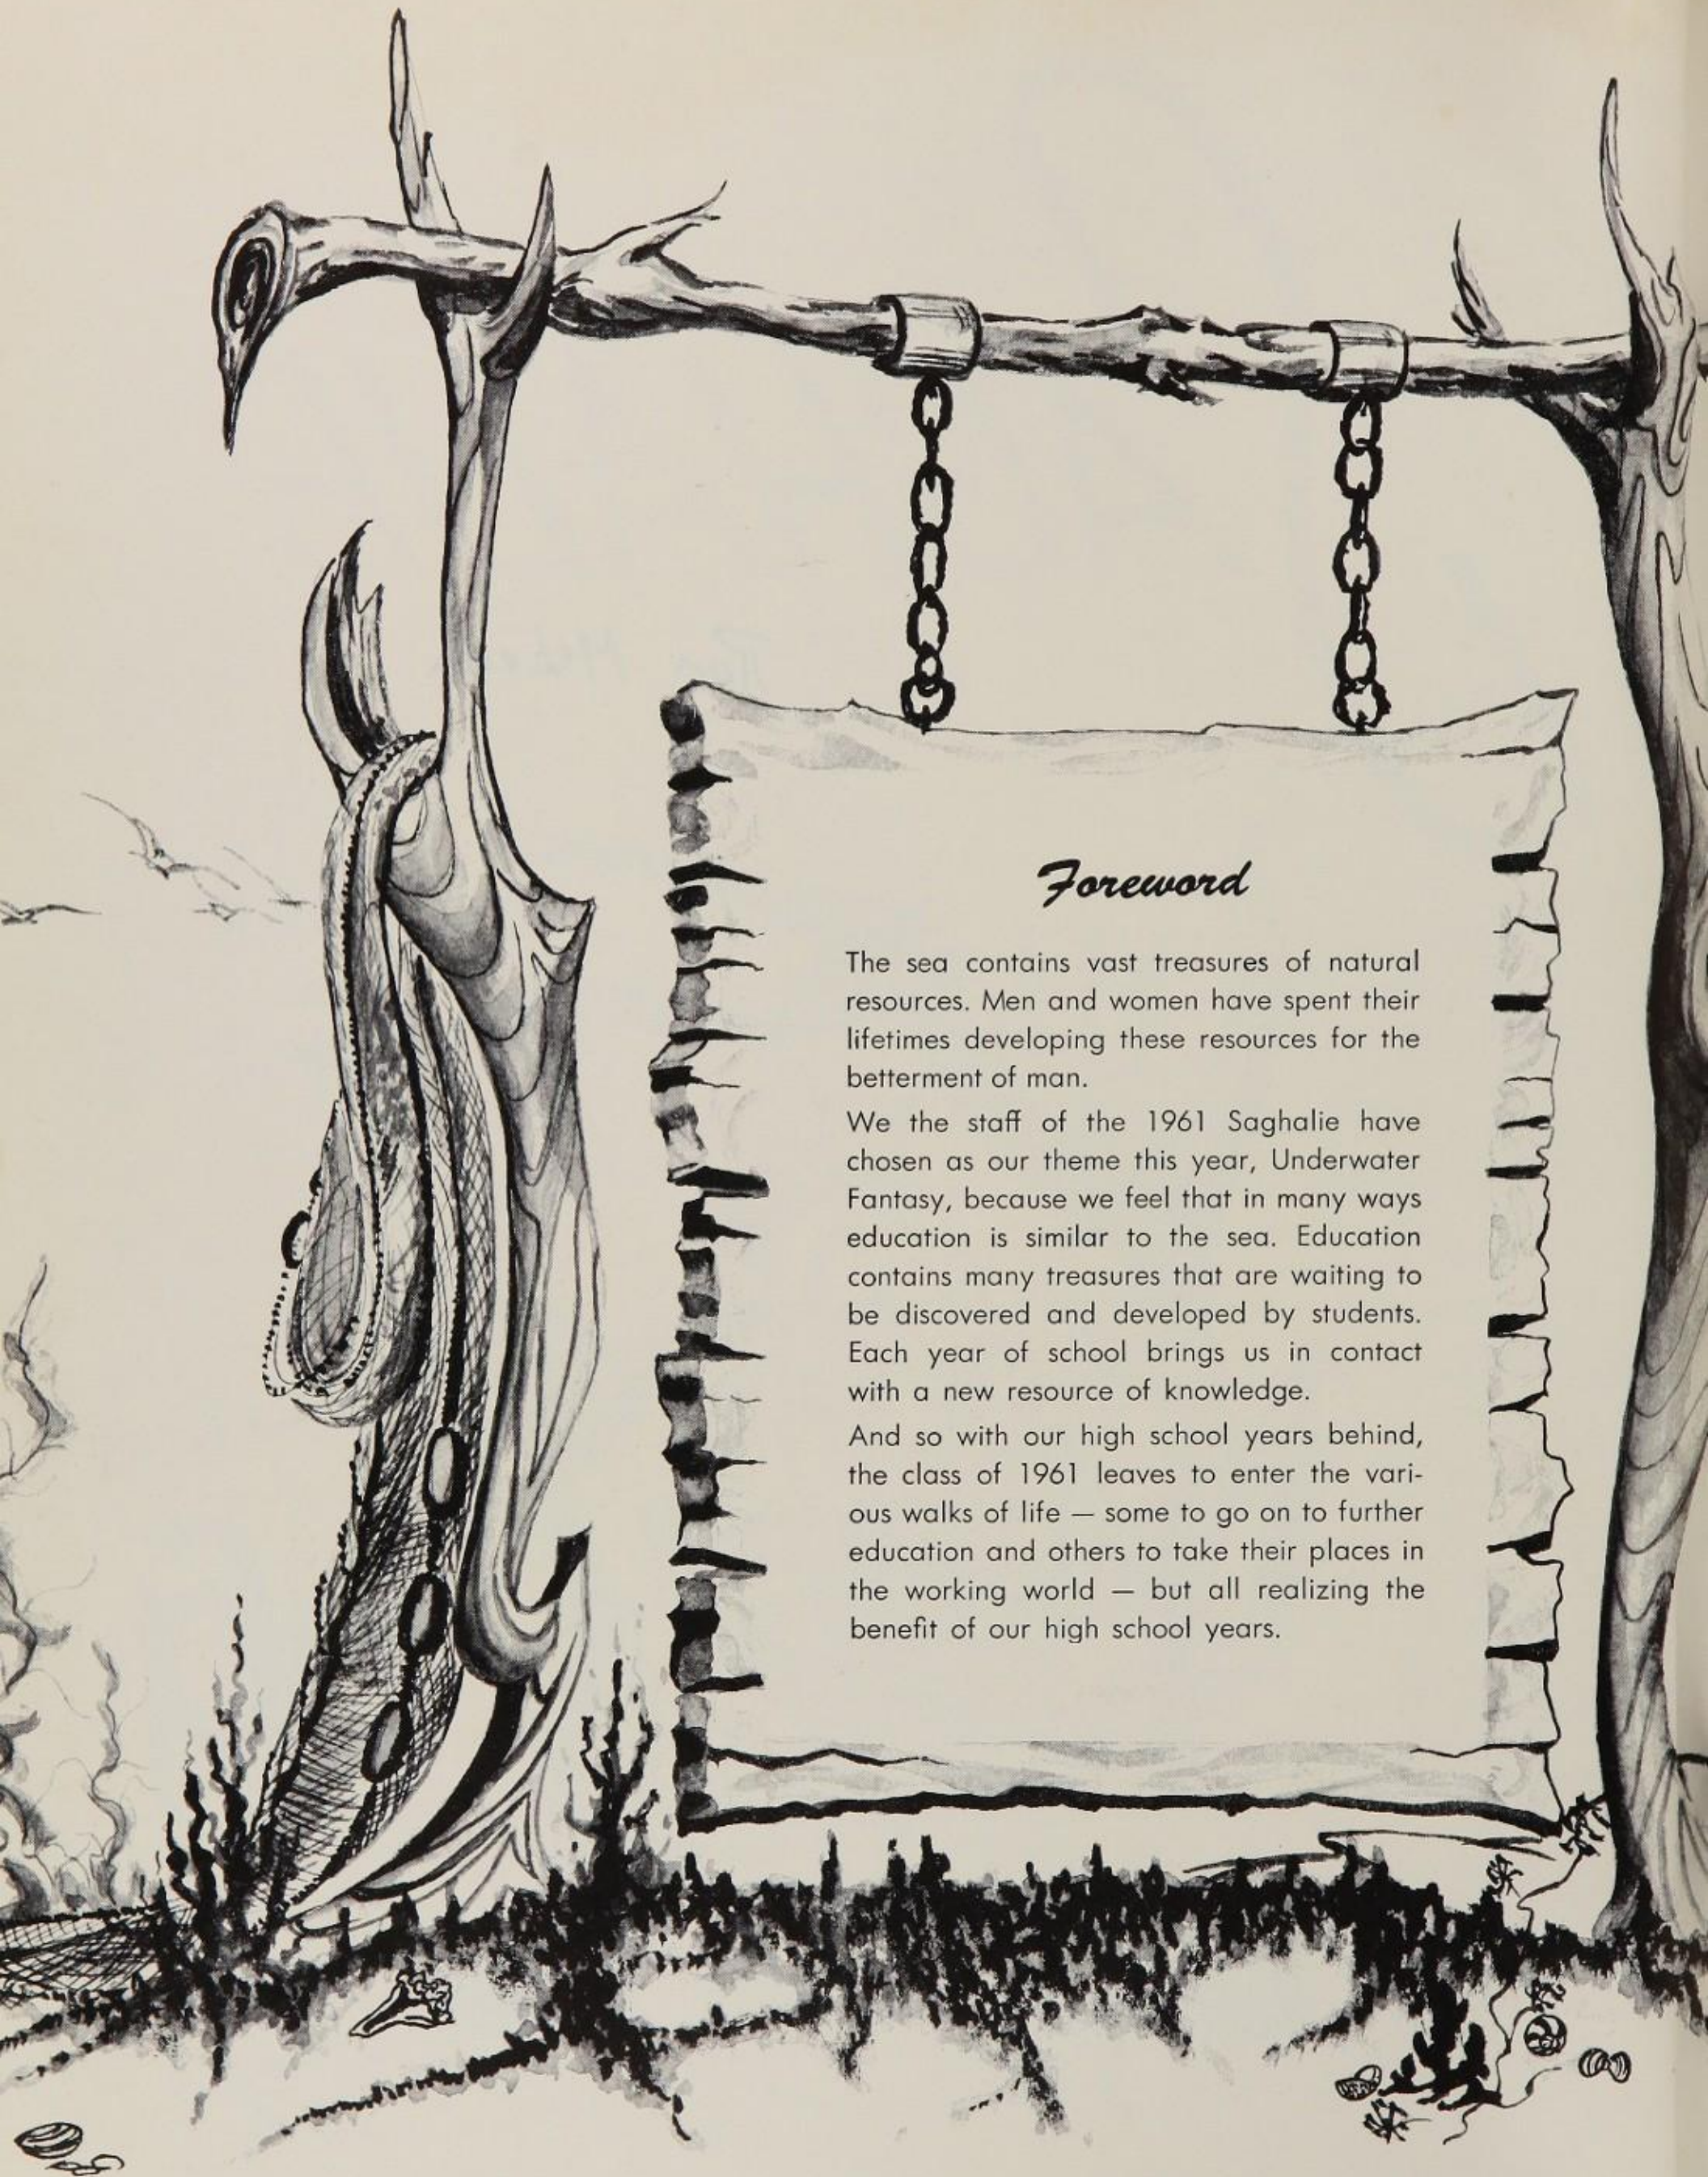

Suzi Aho

Foreword

The sea contains vast treasures of natural resources. Men and women have spent their lifetimes developing these resources for the betterment of man.

We the staff of the 1961 Saghalie have chosen as our theme this year, Underwater Fantasy, because we feel that in many ways education is similar to the sea. Education contains many treasures that are waiting to be discovered and developed by students. Each year of school brings us in contact with a new resource of knowledge.

And so with our high school years behind, the class of 1961 leaves to enter the various walks of life — some to go on to further education and others to take their places in the working world — but all realizing the benefit of our high school years.

Don't think you're wrong just "I don't know" & all are you have had to come - how we've forgot the power!
Now it's "goodbye" - Good of luck at get your to.
You expect
you the future?
Love,
Robert

Dear,
Wendy

DEDICATION

We, the students of Irene S. Reed High School, wish to dedicate this Saghalie, to you, Donnagene Evans.

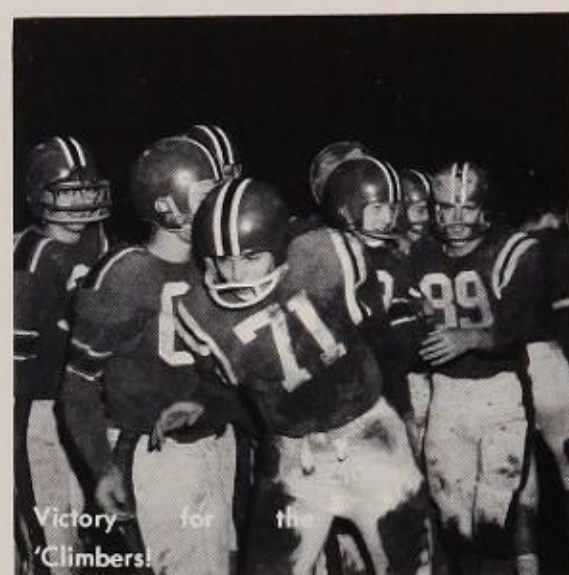

In the past years, you have done much to contribute to our futures. We know we have tried your patience many times with our trivial problems, but your cheerful disposition and understanding nature have made our high school years a pleasant experience.

We feel proud to dedicate this Saghalie to you in appreciation of your hard work as secretary of Irene S. Reed, and we want to wish you the best of everything in future years.

ROOM TO BREATHE PROMISED FUTURE STUDENTS

Students of the future at Irene S. Reed will be more fortunate than the class of '61. The crowded conditions in our school were finally brought to the attention of the voters of Mason County who on November 8, 1960, voted for the school bond issue for the construction of an addition to our present Angle School. Future students will enjoy the facilities of a new science department, a new language department and other modern classrooms, all of which will help to accommodate the increasing numbers of high school students.

JUNIOR CLASS

Secretary
Jerie Albrecht

The Junior Class officers for the 1960-1961 year were Richard Watson, president; Gary Simons, vice-president; Jerie Albrecht, secretary; and Kent Johnson, board of control representative. The class advisers were Miss Irene Burright and Mr. Robert Sund.

In October the Juniors presented "The Perfect Idiot," a three-act farce which proved to be highly successful. The play was directed by Mr. Dean Tarrach.

Several junior boys represented their class on the Highclimber football squad. Those who won letters include Scott Elliot, Ken Olson, Bill Dennis, Jerry Linton, Bruce Cowan, Dave Lamont, and Mike Smith.

Many girls participated in G.A.A. and Pep Club. Cheering all Highclimber teams through victory and defeat were Gary Calkins, yell king, and Kathy Santamaria and Diane Woods, song queens.

Juniors assisting the Highclimber basketball teams were Gary Simons, Corky Peterson, and Wayne Carlson, while John Sells, Richard Watson, Ken Olson, and Scott Elliott displayed their ability on the junior varsity.

With spring came the usual athletics. Many junior boys turned out for the Highclimber baseball and track teams. Tennis and golf were also favorites of the juniors.

The honor of attending the annual Evergreen Girls' and Boys' States was given to four junior girls and four junior boys.

The grandest event of the year, the Junior Prom, proved to be a huge success. The committees eagerly fulfilled their duties.

Providing the decorations for Commencement and Baccalaureate brought the juniors to the realization that only one year remained of their high school careers. Ever looking ahead, the juniors will strive to make their senior year a year of success and pleasure.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Chosen to lead the class of '63 through their first year of high school were Jerry Donahoe, president; Larry Sund, vice president; Judy Nicholson, secretary; and Chris Knutzen, board of control representative. Advising the class were Mr. Larry Nelson and Mrs. Edith Williams.

Several sophomore boys turned out for football in the fall. The basketball line-up was also well represented by sophomores. One sophomore boy, Dave Rodgers, played regularly on the varsity team.

In the field of pep, Marilyn Hughes cheered the Climbers on to victory along with the help of the sophomore girls in the Pep Club.

The Music Department benefited greatly by the participation of the many talented sophomores in the band, choir, and mixed chorus.

Demonstrating their acting ability, several sophomores presented their annual play in the Spring.

Eagerly awaiting their junior year, the class of '63 closed the books on their first year of high school.

BOARD OF CONTROL

In the spring of 1960, the student body of Irene S. Reed High School elected their school officers for the 1960-1961 term. Elected to head the student body as president was Laurie Somers; Denny Hinton was elected to the office of vice president; and Linda Cheney was chosen as secretary-treasurer.

The officers were elected by the pattern originating in the national elections. There was a white party and a blue party into which the student body was equally divided. Each party nominated candidates and then held primary elections. The general election took place by secret ballot.

The duties of the president, Laurie Somers, were to preside at all meetings of the student body and at the Board of Control meetings.

Denny Hinton, vice-president, presided over the meetings in the absence of the president and was in charge of keeping the school campus clean.

Linda Cheney as secretary kept an accurate record of all meetings and signed all checks leaving the school. The Board of Control served as a discussion group on selected problems that arose during the year. A student who had some business to be discussed by the Board would inform his representative. The representative, in turn, would present the business at the next meeting. The 1960-61 Board of Control included: representatives Jerry Bloomfield, senior; Kent Johnson, junior; Chris Knutzen, sophomore; Terry Osterberg, "S" Club; Judy Waters, G.A.A.; Bobbi Crapo, Girls' Club; Joe Waters, Boys' Club; Sherry Halbert, Press Club; Dick Edwards, Honor Society; Peg Price, Pep Staff; Norm Sherwood, Assemblies Committee; Gary Lord, Thespian Society; Rosemary Stuck, Rifle Club; Ken Kessel, Quill and Scroll; Judy Eby, Pep Club; and Marsha Sargent, Art Club.

GIRLS' CLUB

Judy Manke was at the helm of the most active organization in school, the Girls' Club.

Judy and her other executive officers were formally installed on September 16, 1960, the theme of the installation being "Nature's Wonderland."

The Homecoming Dance on November 11 was the first major project of the Girls' Club. The Tuberculosis Drive followed to raise funds for the cause by selling raffle tickets on a television set. A contest between the girls and the boys stimulated ticket sales and the losers entertained the winners with a talent show.

The annual Christmas Toy Drive was again undertaken this year. The students collected toys to be given to needy children.

Proceeds from the noon candy sales and the Forest Festival Booth maintain the Girls' Room and provide a one hundred dollar scholarship for some lucky girl.

Other projects completing the year's activities were the Father-Daughter Banquet and the spring semi-formal dance and Mother's Reception.

BOYS' CLUB

Irene S. Reed's 1960-61 Boys' Club had another fine year led by Ed Stock, elected last spring. When school reopened in the fall, the slate of officers was completed with the election of vice president, Lee Buzzard; secretary, Joe Wingard; and board of control representative, Joe Waters. Mr. Chet Dombroski again advised the club.

In June, 1960, five of the boys attended Boys' State. They were Ed Stock, Laurie Somers, Jim Smith, Sherry Halbert, and Joe Wingard.

The first big venture was the annual Thanksgiving Basket Drive. A joyful Thanksgiving was the result for many needy families of Mason County.

The County Tuberculosis Association donated a television to be raffled, and the Boys' and Girls' Clubs competed in the sale of tickets.

In January the Mother-Son Banquet was held for the boys' mothers.

For a final touch, a rousing Father-Son Mixer was held. The boys and their fathers both enjoyed the sports and entertainment together.

Planned and edited under the direction of Mary MacRae, editor-in-chief; Donna Sandmann, assistant editor; and supervised by Paul Gillie, adviser, the 1961 Saghalie will prove to be one of the most effective ever printed.

To put out a yearbook the size of the Saghalie requires much planning and organization. Last spring the following section editors were chosen: Linda Leman, photography editor; Suzanne Wetter, copy editor; Jody Dayley, business manager; Janice Demmon, sales manager; Ken Kessel, sports editor; Judy Waters, make-up editor; and Bob Leeds, photographer.

Minor Editors: Linda Leman, Bob Leeds, Suzanne Wetter, Earl Fulmer, Jody Dayley. Not pictured: Judy Waters, Janice Demmon.

These editors formed the framework for the yearbook production, but without the help of the students on their staffs, production would not have been possible. Considering the number of people involved in publishing an annual — photographers, school authorities, printers, artists — one can easily see the amount of cooperation that is needed to publish the book. One of the features added to this year's annual is an index to facilitate the finding of a particular person. Our yearbooks are judged by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and in the past have always rated quite high. We anticipate that the 1961 Saghalie will rate even higher.

Editor

Roy Kimbel
Editor

Fifteen students enrolled in the journalism class at the beginning of this school term to produce the school's biweekly publication, the Highclimber. The four-page newspaper is written and edited in Room 12-F and printed at the Shelton-Mason County Journal office under the direction of Mr. Paul Gillie.

Ken Kessel was chosen to head the staff as editor-in-chief during the first semester while Roy Kimbel directed the writers during the second semester. Both are graduating this year after serving three years on the Highclimber staff.

The duty of choosing page editors was left to the editor-in-chief. Pat Zelenak served as acting editor-in-chief and Bonnie Barnhard was her associate for the special "beginner's edition" at the end of the first semester. The remaining students served as page editors at different intervals during the year. They included Jay Stauss, Derrille Thayer, Pete Buechel, Denny Hinton, Shirley Dillenburg, Sharon Kidd, Linda Leman, George Johnson, Marsha Sargent, Shirley Linton, and Jayne Rucker. Bob Leeds and Clint Halbert, not members of the class, served as photographers.

The staff conducted its annual two-week Safety Program late in 1960 under the chairmanship of Roy Kimbel. Working in association with the Press Club on a January dance was another activity of the journalism class. The staff produced fifteen newspapers this year, including the Senior Edition.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Roy Kimbel, Linda Leman, Mary MacRae, Ken Kessel.

Quill and Scroll is an honorary society for those students who have done outstanding work in the journalism field. Late last year four students qualified themselves for membership in this club. Roy Kimbel and Ken Kessel were accepted for their work on the newspaper and Linda Leman and Mary MacRae for their contributions to the Saghalie. New members from the 1960-61 staff were initiated this spring.

HANDBOOK

Editor Ken Kessel

The 1961 Handbook was edited this year by Ken Kessel and advised by Mr. Joseph Hartough. It was printed by the Shelton-Mason County Journal. Its purpose is to acquaint new students with the customs of Irene S. Reed and to familiarize them with organizations open for membership. The Handbook serves another purpose in teaching the new sophomores the school songs, yells, and the alma mater.

PRESS CLUB

Students who have contributed to the editing and publication of the Highclimber, the Saghalie, or the Handbook are eligible for membership in the principal publications organization of I. S. R., the Press Club. The 1961 Press Club was composed of about twenty-five members under the leadership of Ken Kessel, president, and Mr. Gillie, faculty adviser. Marsha Sargent served as vice president; Nancy Nichols as secretary; Sherry Halbert as board of control representative and Mary MacRae as reporter. The Press Club sponsored a dance in late January and was responsible for the sale of Highclimber subscriptions both in September and January.

As the number of pupils in high school multiplied, a need arose for recognition of the better student. Founded in 1921 for this purpose, the National Honor Society is sponsored by the National Association of Secondary-School Principals. Our organization, the Margaret Baldwin Chapter of Honor Society, is one of 5500 local chapters throughout the United States. The officers of our chapter are Kathy Richey, president; Norm Sherwood, vice-president; Nancy Abo, secretary-treasurer; Dick Edwards, board of control representative; and Ken Kessel, reporter. Miss Reta Loudermilk is the adviser for the fourth year.

To raise money for scholarships given each year to a deserving senior boy and senior girl in Honor Society, the members sold football programs at the games. This year a milk machine, instead of the pop machine, was installed.

To become an Honor Society members, a student must have a "B" average and be judged on the basis of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, service, and character. The student is pledged at the end of his sophomore year. If he is accepted for membership, the student will be initiated in the spring of his junior year, and is given a Torch Club pin. If the member earns 97 activity points by the end of his senior year, he may keep his Honor Society pin.

The actors and actresses of Irene S. Reed High School started the year by electing Joe Hanson, president; Dave Sund, vice-president; Jo Johnsen, secretary; Gary Lord, Board of Control representative. This organization is directed by Mr. Dean Tarrach.

In the fall the Thespian Society sold hot coffee and doughnuts at the home football game.

The main purpose of Thespian society is to promote advancement of dramatics in the secondary schools.

The junior play was held in the fall, the senior play in the winter and the sophomore play in the spring.

In order to be initiated into Thespians one must earn ten points. This is done by participating in dramatic activities including one three-act play or a major role in two one-act plays.

At the end of each year a senior member is selected for the "Thespian of the Year" award. A panel of faculty members and the Thespian members chooses this recipient. The recipient of this award last year was Ray Manke.

Librarians perform a number of duties to help our library run smoothly and efficiently. Two of the various assignments are handling reserve books and checking books in and out. They may also show other students how to find information and they remind people of over due books and collect and record fines.

Under the direction of Mrs. Carpenter, the library has added many new books. From 8:00 in the morning until 4:00 in the afternoon, the library is open to the students for study and for the checking out of books.

Being a projectionist carries quite a responsibility. The new projectionists are taught the fundamentals of operating the movie projector by the more experienced ones. After a few weeks of practice, under the supervision of Mr. Kreger, they are permitted to show films on their own. In order to do this they must be prepared at any time to be called from study hall. For this reason they must maintain a "C" or better grade average. These projectionists can feel proud of the service they are contributing to the school.

The office workers fill an important role in the smooth running efficiency of our offices.

Office workers are chosen on the basis of their reliability and qualifications for the work done in the principal's office and the counselor's office. These people must have ability in typing, filing, and answering the telephone as well as the personal qualities which help to create efficiency and congenial relations between the students and administration.

In order to work in an office one must have a good scholastic ranking for these students forfeit their library periods to help in the offices.

In charge of the office help are Miss Baldwin for her office, Donna-gene Evans in the principal's office, and Miss Burright in the Angle School.

Art Club is an organization for those students interested in some phase of art work. Members are required to do some art project during the year according to their individual interest. The projects done this year range from oil paintings to mosaics and wood carvings.

Leading the group through the year's activities and projects were Earl Fulmer, president and Edith Williams, adviser and art teacher.

F. T. A. was composed this year of over forty students interested in the teaching profession.

Serving in the president's position was Frances Clifton. Under her capable supervision several new projects were undertaken. The club succeeded in raising over $50.00 for a scholarship fund to be given to a deserving senior member.

Programs were held once a month featuring teachers and other people dedicated to the field of teaching the youth of America. Through these meetings the Future Teachers of America members learned whether they were actually suited to a teaching career.

DRIVES

Thanksgiving Day, 1961, was truly a day of thanksgiving and good things to eat for several needy families in Mason County. Under the direction of chairman Ken Martig, and Chet Dombroski, Boys' Club adviser, each first period class prepared a basket filled with the traditional turkey and all its trimmings. This thanksgiving was a happy day for both the students who gave and the families who received.

"I can almost taste the turkey."

Again this year the Girls' Club challenged the Boys' Club to a contest to see who could sell the most tickets for the Tuberculosis Fund. The winning ticket drawn January 13, received a portable television set donated by the Mason County T.B. Association. Judy Manke and Ed Stock, Girls' and Boys' Club presidents, headed the contest. The losing group entertained the winners with a talent assembly.

This year nearly $1000 was raised for this worthy cause.

Judy and Ed eye the television.

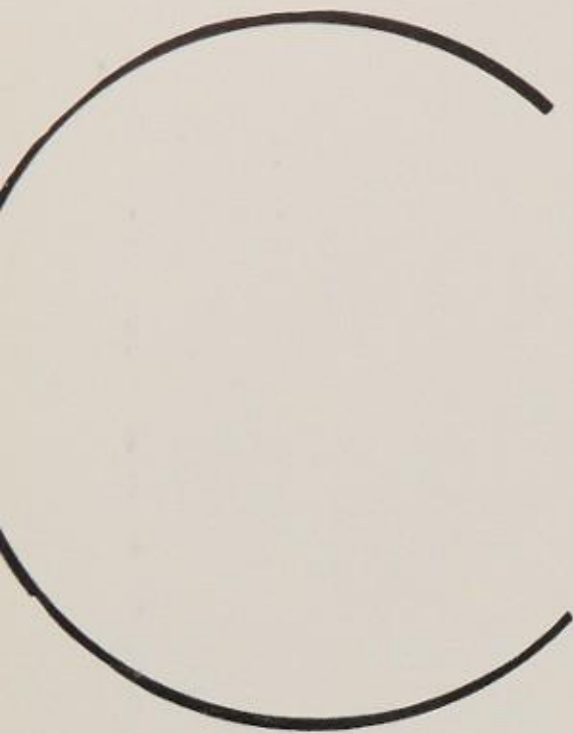

To make Christmas a more joyous occasion for children who would not ordinarily receive much, Irene S. Reed's students collected toys still in good condition for these needy children.

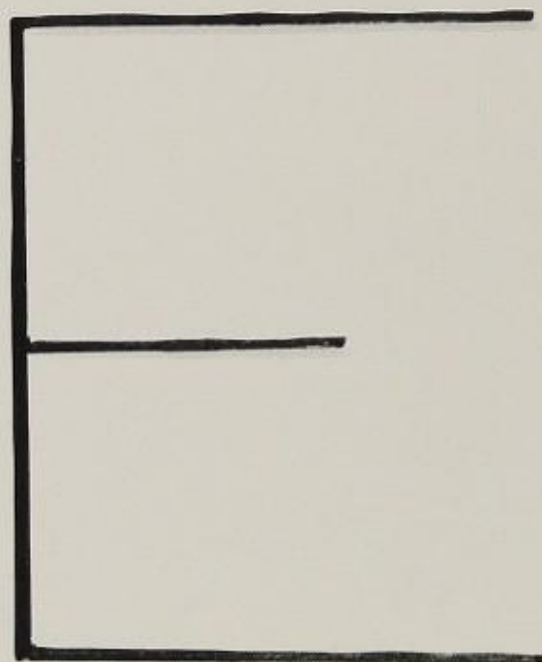

Santa Claus made a daily trip through classes collecting toys for his huge sack.

Through this Girls' Club project students at I. S. R. realized that it is truly "more blessed to give than to receive."

G. A. A.

The coming of the new school year brought many peppy and ambitious girls out for G.A.A. At the first meeting, newly elected officers chosen to lead these girls were: president, Terry Roberts; vice president, Naomi Nagai; treasurer, Christie Samples; and Board of Control representative, Judy Waters.

While weather permitted, the girls enjoyed playing out of doors. Baseball was among the favorite activities during the fall.

With the coming of winter, the girls enjoyed many more activities in the two gyms. Divided into six teams, they played off for a championship in volley ball.

Some other activities included dodge ball, basketball, table tennis and shuffle board.

The girls sponsored a dance after one of the football games. It proved to be very successful and was enjoyed by all.

During the year, some of the more active girls attended three playdays. They were at Bethel, Curtis, and Fife. At these playdays the girls had an opportunity to participate in activities with the girls from other towns.

The annual picnic was held in May with all the girls enjoying it immensely.

Formed in 1926, the Irene S. Reed "S" Club has always been an active organization. Its major purpose is to bring all the athletes together in one group. Upon fulfilling certain specified requirements, these boys wear the letter "S" with pride. The club sponsored several dances throughout the year and sold popcorn at home basketball games for a money-raising project. Ken Martig as president led the club this year.

Having earned at least one letter in G.A.A. or in tennis, girls at Irene S. Reed are eligible for membership in the honorary society, Scarlet "S." These girls also have the privilege of wearing a letter sweater. Because of its close association with G.A.A., Scarlet "S" has few officers. Terry Roberts served as president of this girls' honorary organization this year.

"Best Ever" are the words heard after one of the band's performances. The 1961 band, under the direction of Gary N. Nicloy, did a splendid job of representing I.S.R. at their many concerts and contests this year.

Traveling to Fife, the band participated in the Mass Band and Choir Festival. Later in the year another trip was made to Lake Washington for a band concert.

Last summer for the first time the I.S.R. band had the distinct honor of marching in the Seafair Parade in Seattle. Those watching felt they did an excellent job.

During the football and basketball seasons, the band contributed much to the pep and enthusiasm of the students by playing for pep assemblies and games.

Along with their regular band work, many of the members took time out to play in the numerous small ensembles, the Dance Band and the Dixie Land Band.

To make the 1961 band the best ever, many students who couldn't work the band class into their schedules sacrificed their mornings and other spare time to practice with the regular students. Because these are not shown in the above picture we feel it proper to name them here: Marjorie Parks, Cheryl Butler, Ron Hill, Leanne Armstrong, Marilyn Jones, and Nancy Nichols.

The band certainly deserves a lot of credit for their efforts this past year to present music suitable to everyone's tastes.

The Senior Choir, under the direction of Mr. Pat Havens, participated in many activities this year. Some highlights were the Christmas Concert, the Spring Concert, the Seamount League Choir Festival, and the Choral Contest at Auburn. Along with these major performances, many other programs were presented. At Christmas, the choir was unusually busy presenting seven programs in eight days.

The seventy-voice choir is the largest choral group Shelton has had in recent years. Out of this large group, about thirty-five students were active in ensembles which rehearsed before and after school. The three ensemble groups were: the Girls' Nonette, the Boys' Ensemble and the Girls' Ensemble. Members of these groups were given extra opportunities to perform. The groups were busy entertaining local clubs and singing in assembly programs as well as participating in the previously mentioned choir programs.

Over thirty senior members presented their last high school program at the Commencement exercises. It is hoped that they will long remember with pleasure and pride the sense of accomplishment and the satisfaction that is theirs in knowing that the job was done well.

Shelton won four of its six games in the new Seamount League competition and placed third in the seven-team conference. The Highclimbers defeated Fife, Bethel, Curtis, and White River while losing to North Thurston and Peninsula, the two league leaders. Coach Sund's charges also dropped non-league tilts to Montesano and Chehalis.

Twenty-eight players received letters for their season efforts. Seniors who tasted their last of prep football included Dale Taylor, Ken Martig, Roy Buzzard, Joe Wingard, Don Northness, Terry Osterberg, Gary Lord, Ed Stock, Dave Sharpes, Gary Schneider, Laurie Somers, Pete Buechel, Dave Sund, Ron Ellis, Derrille Thayer and Tom Trail.

Those who participated but did not receive letters were LeRoy Austin, Jim Goodpaster, Jim LaMont, Mike Sheedy, Bruce Crawford, Norm Petereit, John Bliner, Doug Lutz and Gary Peterson. Clay Schmidt, Morley Preppernau, Vince Bostwick and Tom Wingard were managers.

For the first time in ten years, the Highclimbers this season enjoyed at least a share of their league's basketball championship.

The Shelton squad, under Coach Jerry Vermillion, upset North Thurston to snag a tie for the first Seamount League title. Also, the Highclimbers enjoyed their best season record in the school's 34-year history. They won 11 and lost only one in conference action and compiled a 15-3 season mark.

The mighty firs that crown the hills,
Have grown from tiny seeds.
To guard like sentries on the hills,
My school, Irene S. Reed.
Within her portals wisdom lives,
She teaches us to lead.
To guard this great Northwest of ours,
My school, Irene S. Reed.

Alma Mater

The Highclimbers on Loop Field,
The band goes a-marching by.
The yell leaders and majorettes,
The cheering alumni.
We dedicate our lives this day,
To help in every need.
And through the years I'll love you well,
My school, Irene S. Reed.

Or

well paid ~~and~~ Die finally make it (I think) & don't back so rather you again do them lots of fun & I hope you'll remember me always. Have been this summer & did see you at sea fair.

lots of love,

Dear Q
Clemens
Kunz

See me first and then I will see you.

I have had your journal and I am glad to see that you are so interested in the work of the church. I am sure that you will find it very interesting and profitable.

Don't you think it's a pretty good idea that if you and I both don't read, we might be able to work, you might be able to study from the book and play a few songs
I have a few

Boy Ron, you would a mean piece of chalk.
Martin Felix

Don't, don't class of 162 Don't always remain in my memories - how could I ever forget all of see you march in the big parade this summer? Big fun!!
See you in band
next year.
Lots of love
Lark
